REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

Hammond, Wimberly, Cooley, And the Citizen's Ticket Turned Down Good And Plenty.

Promptly at 2 p. m. yesterday J. C. Richey, secretary of the republican city central committee called the convention to order in the McAninch Hall. C. B. O'dell placed R. A. White in nomination for temporary chairman. There being no other nominations Mr. White was elected by acclamation. Dr. Tonge was selected as secretary. The various committees were then appointed. As there were no contests the committee on credentials was soon ready to report, their report being adopted. The committee on organization and order of business, reported that the temporary organization be made permanent and then proceeded to turn a somersault by recommending that the nomination for mayor be made the last thing on the program. We could not see the wisdom of this order of business at the time the committee made the report, not knowing what was on the program and under cover, but we did not have to investigate very far until we discovered the "darkey" in the wood pile. We also discovered some of them on the 1st and 2nd ward delegations. The slate was made, and the ward healer was determined that it should be carried through without a break in it. Consequently the mayor must be the last thing on the program. The convention swallowed the report of the committee on order of business without even a protest.

The platform committee had a job, a hard job, a bad job. We want every voter in Anadarko to read the platform. On account of space we can not publish it today, but tomorrow it will appear in our columns. The following ticket was nominated:

Police Judge	Homer Ahrends
City Clerk	F. V. Hamilton
City Attorney	G. L. Wood
Street Com.	R. Z. McAninch
Chief of Police	W. H. Stark-weather.
City Treasurer	E. B. Ellis
School Treas.	Wm. Reece
Mayor	O. K. Cochran

Politics and Elections.

Ours is not a government of the people, but a government of the constitution administered by the people's chosen representatives. In the attempts to frame that constitution the fact developed that among those grand old patriots who had led the American colonists in a successful revolt against the British crown, there were marked differences of opinion as regards the functions, powers and prerogatives of government. On those two opposing lines of thought, the one being represented by Alexander Hamilton and the other by Thomas Jefferson, two great political parties were formed. These two parties known today as the Republican and Democratic parties, will exist as long as the Constitution stands, and therefore in all elections involving state or national legislation, it is not only natural but necessary and right that party lines should be drawn, and a strict party vote polled, to the end that the officer thus elected may know that his political views are endorsed by at least a majority of his constituents. But in the selection of men to fill offices, the duties of which do not have to deal with the making but with the enforcement of law, then the qualifications of courage, stability and integrity rises above the considerations of political opinion and party fealty.

Our sheriff's opinion in regard to the tariff does not affect us, but his ability and disposition to discharge the delicate and responsible duties of his high office successfully and honestly does affect us very much.

What our city officials may think in regard to any and all questions of public policy, will not of itself affect Anadarko for good or ill, but their ability and disposition to give us an honest, clean and impartial administration of the city's affairs which regard to the laws of Oklahoma and of the United States is every thing to us. We want good schools, we want waterworks and electric lights, we want our streets and crossings and sidewalks put in good condition and kept in repair. We want people engaged in all lines of business made to respect the laws under which they are allowed to do business. This is not a prohibition campaign but an effort to put our city under control of clean, capable, honest men. In order to secure this a Republican can afford to vote for a Democrat and a Democrat can afford to vote for a Republican. The watchword of the campaign should be "See to it that no coward or grafter is elected."

"Under the Big Tent."

The entertainment to be given at the Opera House, March 6, by Col. Jack Faw, will be a benefit to our citizens in more than one way. Not only will they have an opportunity to hear a splendid lecture, delightful music and laughable anecdotes and impersonations, but they will also have the satisfaction of knowing that a goodly share of the proceeds will be given to the high school library at this place. This entertainment should be liberally patronized, as our school children will be greatly benefited both by the lecture and by the addition to the library funds.

Prices Reduced.

The price of admission to Col. Jack Faw's entertainment tonight has been reduced from 25 and 50 cents to 15 and 35 cents. The difference in price will be refunded to those who have already purchased tickets.

Delinquent Personal Taxes.

All persons having delinquent personal taxes can save further costs by paying up before March 15th. After that date the law requires that tax warrants be placed in the hands of the sheriff for collection.
